About Linda Forster:

Linda has been a prayer minister for over three decades. Her journey with God to personal freedom ignited a passion to write Loved to Life because, like her, so many in the body of Christ struggle to run in God's destiny. She is the director of Healing the Heart Ministries at Life Center Ministries International in Harrisburg, PA. Her Master's degree in Christian counseling and background as a registered nurse brings a unique perspective for healing in Jesus in our spirit, soul, and body.

The Loved to Life Team:

Our dedicated team is passionate to help others in their journey to freedom and destiny. Each member has pursued their personal freedom, been trained in various ministry models, and completed an internship through the prayer ministry department at Life Center Ministries.

Our team ministers through the Word and the Holy Spirit, connecting hearts to God, bringing freedom from life's traumas and helping release God-given destiny.

We would be honored to walk with you on your journey to freedom and destiny!
